

NAME THAT PARK!

Directions: Using the large National Park Service map and answer the questions below with a partner or your group. Each student should complete his/her own worksheet. Your answers may be different from your partner or other group member's answers for some of the questions.

1. Name a National Park you have visited: _____

What state/territory is it in: _____

2. Name a National Park in Washington, DC: _____

3. Name a National Park that is named for a President. _____

What state is it in? _____

4. Identify the name of the park and the state/territory it is in:

What National Park is farthest north? _____

What National Park is farthest south? _____

What National Park is farthest west? _____

What National Park is farthest east? _____

5. Name a site that tells about American History. _____

What event in U.S. History do you think it tells the story of? _____

6. Name a Park that might have been established to protect the natural environment.

7. Which state has the most number of National Parks? _____

How many does it have? _____ Why do you think there are so many National Parks there?

8. Which state has the least number of National Parks? _____ How many does it have? _____

List the National Park(s) in that state: _____

9. Identify a National Park in one of the U.S. territories: _____

Which territory is it in? _____

10. Name a National Park you would like to visit: _____

Why would you like to visit this park? _____

Bonus: Is there a National Park that you think is missing--should there be a National Park somewhere that there isn't one now?

If so, what would you name this National Park? _____

Where would you put it? _____